Dear Mrs. Higby:

I am sorry that you will not be able to serve as a judge for National Coin Week, but I do wish you a very enjoyable weekend in Aspen. I do hope that you will be able to get to Colorado Springs and our headquarters before these books are shipped for display at our national convention in Philadelphia in August. I feel that they afford an insight into this hobby that few non-numismatists realize exists.

If at any time, we can be of service to you in Denver, please do not hesitate to call on us. We would deem it a privilege to be of service.

Sincerely,

EDWARD C. ROCHEUTE

Dear Mr. Rochette:

As May 30, the date of your judging, affords me a long week end, I made preparations some time ago to spend this holiday in Aspen; consequently, I shall not be able to serve as one of the judges of the scrapbooks prepared for National Coin Week. Also, as a newcomer to the field of coins, I do not feel qualified to participate in the judging.

I do appreciate your invitation and hope that this declination will not mar the rapport of the ANA and the Treasury Department.

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Betty Higby
Superintendent
